

ZETDC HRE HR & ADMIN 03/003 OCCUPATIONAL ACCIDENT HANDLING

	ACTIVITY	RISK BASED THINKING (ISO 9001:2015)		ENVIRONMENT (ISO 14001: 2015)		OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY (ISO 45001:2018)
		RISKS/ OPPORTUNITIES	CONTROLS	ASPECTS	IMPACTS	HAZARD	RISK
1	Accident occurs	Tarnishing of company image. Property damage Direct and indirect accident costs	Accident handling procedures.	Oil spillage	Environmental contamination depending on the nature of the accident.	Unsafe accident scene e.g. energised equipment, fire, oncoming vehicles etc. Body fluids e.g. blood Acts of aggressions e.g. blaming others for the occurrence of the accident. Ergonomic hazards e.g. lifting victims	Further injuries/damages in addition to the one which would have occurred. Communicable diseases Further injuries/stress Musculoskeletal disorders.
2	Report to Local Senior Official	False details Failure to report Omission of other important information. Communication challenges Judgement error e.g. under estimating the severity.	Verification of details before reporting. Accident/Incident reporting procedures.	Waste paper	Land pollution	-	-
3	Report to management	False details	Verification of details before reporting.	-	-	-	-

		Failure to report Omission of other important information. Communication challenges Misinterpretation of verbal report.	Accident/Incident reporting procedures. Provision of resources for communication.
4	Report to the police/NSSA/ZERA	Wrong details Misrepresentation of material fact Failure to report within stipulated timelines. Omission of important information.	Verification of details before reporting. Accident/Incident reporting procedures. Provision of resources for communication.	Waste paper	Land pollution	-	-
5	Administer First Aid	Lack of first aiders. Inappropriate rendering of First Aid. Lack of first aid box contents.	First aid trainings and appointment of adequate first aiders. Provision of first aid boxes.	Medical wastes	Environmental pollution. Spreading of communicable diseases.	Body fluids COVID 19 virus	Infections/Communicable diseases

6	Seek medical attention	Delays there by worsening the situation. Transport challenges. Long queues at medical centres	All the required logistics to be done with urgency Use of ambulance services.	Waste paper	Land pollution	COVID 19 virus Other pathogens Fatigue due to long queues. Driving speed	COVID 19 infections Infectious diseases Road Traffic accidents
9	Update Accident Register	Failure to update the register. Omission of details. Recording wrong details.	Verification of details before updating.	-	-	Computer glare	Eye strain