	Document Type	Long Service and Worker of the year Awards
	Effective Date	01 July 2023
	Review date	-
	Responsible Office	Head: Corporate Services
	Approving Authority	ZESA Holdings (Pvt) Ltd Board

OBJECTIVE

The objective of long service and worker of the year awards is to appreciate and recognize longevity in the service of the Group. The awards are a symbolic gesture by each Company and are not meant to enhance employee income. All long service and worker of the year awards must be given at a ceremony held during the last quarter of the year.

1. LONG SERVICE AWARD

a) QUALIFICATION FOR LONG SERVICE

- (i) Permanent staff qualify for long service upon attaining 5, 10,15,20,25,30,35,40,45 years of continuous employment within the Group of Companies.
- (ii) Ex-Graduate Trainees appointed to substantive posts will have their two years of training, immediately preceding permanent employment, included in computing period of service.
- (iii) Employees initially recruited on Apprenticeship will have their period of qualifying service computed from their respective dates of appointment into permanent positions.
- (iv) Service for permanent employees who would have served the organization as contract employees will be computed from the date they were appointed to permanent status.

b) AWARDS

The long service awards presentations for staff qualifying to receive such awards in any one year will be made once a year by each Company as follows: -

Please note:

- The tax component of the monetary awards will be borne by the employer.
- Long service souvenir values are payable in local currency and computed using the interbank rate of the last day of the previous month.

c) LONG SERVICE AWARDS CEREMONY

The following conditions will apply :-

- (i) Arrangements will be made by the Local Senior Official to have a photographer in attendance and up to three photographs of the event will be handed to each recipient.
- (ii) A long service award ceremony will be arranged at a local venue for all long service recipients. Recipients of 5,10,15 and 20 year long service awards may invite one guest each whilst recipients of awards for 25 years and above may invite two guests each.
- (iii) In the case of Executive Grade Staff (Band D5 and above), a long service award ceremony will be arranged by ZESA Holdings for all recipients at a suitable venue to which each recipient is permitted to invite two guests.

d) GENERAL CONDITIONS

- (i) For the 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, 40 and 45 years service awards, the Local Senior Official should make the arrangements for the ceremony and all the awards will be presented once a year at one ceremony officiated by the respective General Manager or equivalent, unless this is not practical due to numbers involved.
- (ii) Each Company should make budgetary provisions for all expenses involved.
- (iii) Where there could be doubt as regards to dates of joining the Company, Local Senior Officials should liaise with Human Resources Section.

- (iv) The awards will not be presented in retrospect. For instance, employees who are in the year of service do not qualify for the ten year service awards.

2. WORKER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Worker of the year awards will be presented between March and May of each year.

a) AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

The aims and objectives of this Award are as follows:-

- (i) To motivate workers.
- (ii) To encourage good conduct and to maintain order among employees.
- (iii) To encourage good working relationships among employees
- (iv) To enforce cooperation among employees and between employees and management.
- (v) To encourage disciplined behaviour and efficiency among employees.

Employees eligible for this Award are those employees in Grades A1 to C4 and the nominations for awards must be made before mid-March of each year.

b) THE AWARDS

- (i) The awards shall be given by each company.
- (ii) The presentation of these awards should be completed by 13 April each year in order for the National Worker of the year to be made in May each year. The National Winner would be nominated by each Company for the Worker of the Year Award to be held around the 12th of May each year.
- (iii) Selection Procedure

Workers should make nominations on Form WR 1 and forward them to the Workers Committee who will have the authority to sanction that nomination. There shall be a Worker of the Year Selection Committee for each Company comprising approximately six members appointed by the Management representing a cross section of the workforce. The General Manager or equivalent or his nominee and a member of the Workers Committee should sit on that committee.

The Form WR2 should be completed by the Local Senior Official for presentation to the Committee. Form WR3 is to be completed by the Region or Station Management.

The Selection Committee will choose the regional winner and arrange the presentation in cooperation with Public Relations and Administration staff.

The name of the Winner will be decided by each Company's Executive Management Committee from the list of five Winners. The presentation will be made by the respective Managing Directors or equivalent at a suitable occasion.

c) Award/Prizes

The five winners will each be given a Certificate, a tie, a small trophy and a cheque by the Local Senior Official and he/she will automatically qualify for the National Award.

A party shall be hosted by the General Manager. A reasonable number of guests, to curtail costs, should attend. The first runner-up will receive 15% of basic monthly salary of Grade C4.3 and a Company tie and the second runner-up will receive 10% of basic monthly salary of Grade C4.3 and a Company tie.

d) National Awards

The National Winner for each Company will be chosen by members of the respective Company's Executive Management Committee from the five finalists and will get the following:-

- (i) A floating trophy with his/her name and year engraved.
- (ii) Cash payments:
 - A cash cheque equivalent to basic monthly salary of Grade C4.3
 - 1st runner-up 50% of basic monthly salary of Grade C4.3
 - 2nd Runner 25% basic monthly salary of Grade C4.3
- (iii) A Company tie
- (iv) A National Worker of the Year Certificate
- (v) A party hosted by the respective Managing Director or equivalent will be held where a reasonable number of guests may be invited to attend.
