

Public Accountants and Auditors (Prescription of International Standards) Regulations, 2019

IT is hereby notified that the Minister of Finance and Economic Development has, in terms of section 44(3) of the Public Accountants and Auditors Act [Chapter 27:12] (hereinafter called the Act), approved the following regulations made by the Public Accountants and Auditors Board:—

Title

1. These regulations may be cited as the Public Accountants and Auditors (Prescription of International Standards) Regulations, 2019.

Interpretation

2. In these regulations—

“Board” means the Public Accountants and Auditors Board established by section four of the Act;

“IFRS Foundation” means the not-for profit corporation of the International Financial Reporting Standards, incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware, of the United States of America on 8th March, 2001;

“International Accounting Standards Board” or “IASB” means the independent standard setting organ of the IFRS Foundation;

“International Federation of Accountants” or “IFAC” means the Association of Accountants established in 1977 under the Swiss Civil Code, whose membership consists of professional accountancy organisations registered in different States;

“International standards” means any internationally recognised standards, codes of practice, guidelines and other recommendations relating to accounting auditing and related matters issued from time to time by the (IASB) or its successor organisations and by IFAC or its successor organisations and by the standards setting boards supported by IFAC;

“Standard setting boards supported by IFAC” include the following—

Public Accountants and Auditors (Prescription of International Standards) Regulations, 2019

- (a) International Accounting Education Standards Board (IAESB);
- (b) International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board (IAASB);
- (c) International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA); or
- (d) International Public Sector Accounting Standards Board (IPSASB).

Application

3. Subject to section 4, these regulations shall apply to relevant aspects of the accountancy and audit professions and practice within the meaning of the Act.

Domestication of International Standards

4. (1) The Board hereby prescribes the international standards specified in the First Schedule, which standards may be inspected by members of the public free of charge during normal business hours at its head office or website as specified in the Second Schedule.

(2) The Board may, by notice in the Government Gazette, adopt, adapt or revise new or existing international standards as and when the need arises.

(3) In the case of any inconsistency between a local pronouncement issued by the Board through a notice in the Government Gazette and any international standard, the local pronouncement shall take precedence to the extent of the inconsistency.
